

Fruit Growers Are Told They Must Do More Advertising To Protect Future Of Industry

More than 1,000 fruit growers from six states were told Wednesday that no industry has a more hopeful future than apples—but that if the hopes for the future are to be realized, the entire industry must spend more on advertising, produce better apples, and do a better job of merchandising.

Two speakers at the annual two-day summer meeting of the Pennsylvania Horticultural association drove home the point of better merchandising and more advertising in addresses Wednesday evening at the Memorial auditorium at the South Mountain fairgrounds.

E. Blackburne Moore, Berryville, Va., president of the National Apple institute and second largest apple grower in Virginia, urged growers and processors to set aside 10 cents per hundred pounds of apples for use in advertising and merchandising.

"Advertising Pays"

The sum could be raised, he said, by the growers permitting a deduction of five cents per hundred pounds from what they receive from the canner and the processor adding an additional five cents per hundredweight to make the complete sum. That fund, he said, should be handled by the processors for advertising, with an advisory committee from the growers meeting with the processors in connection with the advertising program.

"Does advertising pay?" Mr. Moore asked. "The makers of automobiles, soft drinks, refrigerators, radios and everything else have proven beyond a shadow of doubt that advertising pays."

"In Virginia it costs us at least $1 a bushel to produce 12,000,000 bushels of apples and its costs us $6,000,000 to $8,000,000 more to process the crop. And we spend only $38,000 in advertising to protect our $20,000,000 investment."

Strong Competition

"Our competitors do a great deal more than that. The orange people have moved from small production to tremendous harvests and their product is being consumed, but they are putting six to seven cents a bushel into marketing. The other day I saw an advertisement in the Richmond paper in which a store was offering Virginia Winesaps at $1.49 per bushel box for U. S. No. 1. There could be little profit for either grower or storekeeper in that—but the storekeeper was spending a lot of money, in proportion, to protect his investment. He advertised because it was good business—through it he sold the product."

"In apples we have a product that can be used so many ways, has been known so long and accepted for so many years that we have grown complacent in marketing, while we have done great things in producing apples."

Need More Plantings

Samuel Fraser, secretary of the International Apple association, told the group that the apple industry has a more hopeful future than any other. "Our population has increased to 150,000,000 and in a few years it will be 160,000,000. At the same time the number of plantings of apples has not increased. We have more consumers without an increase in production—and production could not be increased for ten or 15 years even though all growers decided today to put in new apple acreage."

"But we growers must be interested in merchandising. Our interest cannot end in merely producing the product. We grow apples to sell, not to be antiques placed away in storage."

"And that is the cause of much of the trouble in the apple industry today. We must face the fact that we have, barring a catastrophe, 120,000,000 bushels of apples to sell each year. And last year we didn't sell them. We sold a large portion of them, but we reached December 1 with 54,000,000 bushels of apples in storage. That is 10,000,000 more bushels than we should have at that time, and those 10,000,000 have been hanging over us ever since."

Fraser added that lower cost of producing apples and lower prices for the product will probably not prevail for some time to come. "In 1850 it cost 2½ cents to produce a barrel of apples. Apples were known as the cheapest food for man or beast. Today we have a very different picture. Our fixed costs have soared. That problem is due to a large extent to our national debt."

Jailed Beggar Is Ordered From Town

Kenneth C. Atkins, 40, who gave his address as Chattanooga, Tenn., made the mistake Wednesday afternoon, not only of begging money on the streets here, but of asking the same person twice.

Complaint was made to borough police, and Atkins was arrested in Lincoln Square. He was committed to jail on a disorderly conduct charge and today sentenced to two days in jail in default of a $5 fine and costs, time served Wednesday evening and this morning to constitute the sentence.

Atkins was "advised" to leave Gettysburg and if he found it necessary to "beg" to do it elsewhere.

LATE BLIGHT SPRAY URGED FOR TOMATOES

County Agent M. T. Hartman today urged tomato growers to spray to prevent late blight which is reported as spreading rapidly in the county.

Dr. R. S. Kirby, State College extension specialist, who with the county agent made a tour of a number of sections of the county Tuesday afternoon, discovered late blight in a dozen fields in an area stretching from Arendtsville to Idaville.

"The late blight in the county has already extended from one field to a dozen and with proper weather conditions could result in a very serious situation, the county agent noted. Several years ago the blight caused thousands of dollars worth of damage in the county."

With the use of sprays the blight can be easily prevented, but is very difficult to halt once it has made a start in a field, Hartman noted. Any one of three sprays may be used or a 7 percent fixed copper dust may be substituted. Dust should be applied at seven day intervals and sprays at 10 day intervals. The three recommended sprays are, two pounds fixed copper to 100 gallons (four pounds of a 50 percent fixed copper or eight pounds of a 26 percent fixed copper), or six pounds of copper sulphate and three pounds of fresh spray lime to 100 gallons or one pound of ziram and three to four pounds of a 50 percent fixed copper to 100 gallons.

Harrisburg, July 26 (AP)—The state highways department today awarded a $24,062 contract to James L. Favino, Red Lion, for resurfacing a concrete bridge over Plum creek near McSherrytown.

HAD $96,500 ESTATE

The will of David D. Basehoar, late of Littlestown, has been entered for probate at the office of the county register and recorder. The widow, Ann M. Basehoar, is executrix and heir of the $96,500 estate.

STATE WILL NOT ACT TO REMOVE LINCOLN PLOT

The center plot in Lincoln Square will not be removed through any action of the state highway department "unless the people of Gettysburg want it removed," according to A. J. Bedard, district engineer.

"The state will not attempt to dictate to the people of Gettysburg in this matter," Mr. Bedard said in Harrisburg Wednesday. "We will do what they want. If they don't want the center plot removed, we have no intention of forcing the issue."

Mr. Bedard said no "formal" report of the state highway department's survey last winter of traffic conditions in Gettysburg had been prepared.

Made Traffic Counts

Traffic counts were taken and recommendations made to borough authorities on the timing of traffic signals, he said. The recommendations were followed, and the red and green lights speeded up to keep traffic from "piling up" back of a red light, he said.

The count also included a survey of traffic conditions in the square. Traffic lights here would be advantageous, he said, but whether they are installed will be "up to Gettysburg."

The traffic count was made by a crew composed of several employees of the highway department's district office, over a period of several days, he said.

At least two members of the present borough council who voted for the removal of the center plot last November and re-affirmed their stand earlier this month, will not be members of the council after December 31.

Here And There News Collected At Random

Three members of town council felt the bitter lash of ballots in Tuesday's primary because of their open flaunting of the expressed wishes of the majority of the residents of Gettysburg.

The back-lash of public resentment was vigorously expressed in the First and Second wards where three last-minute candidates for town council had little difficulty capturing overwhelming victories over incumbents seeking re-election. And all of this with stickers, traditionally considered a losing cause.

The victors are John W. Fox, John L. Millard and James S. Shenk. All three were prevailed upon to seek seats in council in a sticker campaign based on a public pledge of keeping the oval plot in Lincoln Square and eventually erecting a statue of Lincoln on this historic spot.

The issue was clear cut in both wards. Fox, Millard and Shenk want the square retained. Their opponents have publicly stated they want the oval plot removed, thus preventing the erection of a Lincoln statue there.

Tuesday's overwhelming victory at the polls can be fairly construed as an open warning to other members of council who seem determined to tamper with the square and make a race-course of our main streets. It is not unlikely that similar fates would have befallen others had voters been given an opportunity to express a similar preference.

A score or more organizations have adopted resolutions opposing the removal of the Lincoln Square plot and expressing a desire to have a statue of Abraham Lincoln erected in that area. Only one organization favored removal of the plot... and this decision was by a very small majority of a very small percentage of its membership.

Despite this overwhelming and outspoken expression of the will and wish of the people seven members of council steadfastly clung to their determination to clear out the square... the last semblance of natural beauty we have in the business district.

However, the people of two wards have spoken, loud and vociferously. They made no effort to conceal their disdain and disgust and they reiterated their determination to keep the oval plot in Lincoln Square.

Tuesday was a case of the voting public in two wards against three men whom they feared would not abide, as public servants, by the will of the people.

It can just as well happen in other wards come November or the next election after that.

D. K. M'MILLAN IS FOUND DEAD IN BED TODAY

David Kent McMillan, 79, Chicago, Ill., a native of Adams county, was found dead in bed this afternoon at 46 East Middle street where he was residing while visiting here.

Mr. McMillan had arranged to leave via bus at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon on his return to Chicago and when he failed to appear his sister, Miss Margaret McMillan, Hanover street, went to his room and discovered his body on the bed. Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams county coroner, investigated and attributed death to acute heart failure. He placed the time of death at 9:30 a.m. The deceased was born at the old McMillan home, West Confederate avenue.

Frequent Visitor Here

Mr. McMillan was in charge of insecticides and spray equipment and the information and reference bureau of the Vaughn Seed company, of Chicago.

He was connected with the division of zoology at Harrisburg after becoming interested in "bugs" under the tutelage of Dr. Henry Stewart. He left Gettysburg in 1903.

Among survivors, in addition to Miss McMillan, are the following daughters, Miss Martha McMillan, Mrs. Miriam Doerr, both of Chicago, and Mrs. John Hageboeck, of Davenport, Iowa, and a brother, Roy, Charleston, W. Va.

Mr. McMillan attended Dickinson college and frequently visited here and attended reunions of his class at Dickinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jordan, Alexander, Va., have concluded a week's visit in Gettysburg.

BULLETINS

Washington, July 26 (AP)—The Justice Department today launched a new roundup of secondary Communist party leaders in Los Angeles, San Francisco and New York city. The department announced that 11 arrests have been made. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said those arrested have been active in Communist party work, largely in California.

Washington, July 26 (AP)—Frederick Vanderbilt Field, millionaire "angel" of left-wing causes, refused today to tell a Senate committee whether he posted bonds for Communist leaders. "I think I should refuse to answer..." Field said in a voice barely audible in the packed Senate hearing room.

Field was brought before the senators from New York where he is serving a 90-day jail term for contempt of court. That sentence was given him for refusing to tell a federal judge who contributed to the Civil Rights Congress bail fund.

Washington, July 26 (AP)—Legislation to authorize the St. Lawrence Seaway and Power project was killed today by the House Public Works committee. The action was taken by a 15 to 12 roll call vote of the 27-member committee on a motion by Rep. Pickett (D-Tex.) to table the bill. Defeat probably means Canada will give immediate consideration to proceeding with the project alone.

SIX OFFICERS OF F.F.A. VISIT BATTLEFIELD

Six national officials of the Future Farmers of America toured the Gettysburg battlefield today "to see what's here that everyone is talking about."

Five of the six determined to visit Gettysburg when they toured the nation with Fourth Vice President Richard Wright, of Gettysburg R. 1, and "learned that everyone knew of Gettysburg — while few knew of the hometowns of the other five."

One of the youths, Second Vice President Hal Davis, of Quincy, Fla., said that his reason for visiting the battlefield was different from that of the others. The only one of Confederate background, he told National park officials "I wanted to come up here to see where we Confederates slipped up."

President Walter Cummins, of Freedom, Okla., summed up the opinion of the group by saying that "the battlefield exceeded our expectations. We are all more than pleased that we have had the opportunity to come here, and we hope to return again."

Dr. J. Walter Coleman, superintendent of the Gettysburg National park, took the heads of the 500,000 farm youth organization on the tour of the field.

The group came here from Washington where they have been meeting to arrange plans for this fall's annual convention of the FFA and to select the young farmers who will receive the American Farmer award at the national convention.

Richard C. Lighter, county supervisor of agricultural education, and Elmer Schriver, teacher of agriculture at Gettysburg high school, accompanied the group over the field. School Superintendent Dr. Lloyd C. Keefe and Principal Guile Lefever joined the group at lunch.

The national officers are President Cummins, whose grandfather was a Union soldier; Robert L. Smith, Buttonwillow, Calif., first vice president; Second Vice President Davis; Donald Jorgensen, Lake City, Iowa, third vice president; Fourth Vice President Wright and Wayne Starritt, Morgantown, W. Va., secretary.

1911 Oakland No Puzzle To A. E. Hutchison

It took a veteran Gettysburg automobile man only a few brief minutes last Saturday to restore to good running order a 1911 Oakland which had motor trouble at the Gettysburg Country club during the mid-summer meeting of the Allegheny Mountain Region of the Antique Automobile Club of America.

Arthur E. Hutchison, proprietor of the H and H machine shop, 125 South Washington street, found the trouble for David T. Davis, Cumberland, Md., owner of the old car. Davis was backing his car when the motor mis-fired and finally stopped.

Davis was at a considerable distance from home, and was worried, not only about the return trip, but about competing further in the contests for the old cars at the country club. He was skeptical that a garage man could be found who would know anything about a 1911 car. Mr. Hutchison proved not only that he did, but fixed the trouble in "jig time."

To Use Stone In Alley

The problem then arose as to what is to be done with the stone from the old road, which is now being replaced by new. It was decided to use the borough truck to haul some of it away and to use this stone to resurface the alley that is now being used by the residents of South Queen street and others as a detour. The alley in question is the first alley east of South Queen street which is being used from the Monarch street entrance to the borough pumping station near the bridge on South Queen street.

It was also suggested that some of the good stone from the old street be used to establish a stock pile for future use, when several planned streets, not yet ordained, will be able to use the material. Secretary Keefe offered his property on West Myrtle street to be used for the stock pile. He also granted permission to dump as much dirt there as seen fit, as long as the citizens of that vicinity offered no objections. The offer made by the secretary was accepted by council.

There was also a discussion on the condition which exists on West King street extended at the Paul O. Hawk property at Delaware avenue. In an examination made recently by Councilman Rebert it was learned that there is a drop of 16 inches in grade, over 270 feet. It was also discovered that the tile that was laid in that vicinity was not placed deep enough, thereby causing flooding and mud with heavy rains. The street committee is to help bring about recovery of the hard-hit anthracite industry, stabilize employment in the hard coal regions of northeastern Pennsylvania and to assure an adequate supply of hard coal in the event of a national emergency.

Washington, July 21 (AP)—A bill to authorize the temporary stockpiling of hard coal was approved by a House Interior subcommittee today. The bill, by Rep. Flood (D-Pa.), would authorize the government to buy up to 10,000,000 tons of anthracite annually.

Its object is to help bring about recovery of the hard-hit anthracite industry, stabilize employment in the hard coal regions of northeastern Pennsylvania and to assure an adequate supply of hard coal in the event of a national emergency.

Littlestown TOWN'S STREETS UP FOR ACTION BEFORE COUNCIL

The condition of the roads and streets of Littlestown was the main subject of discussion at the meeting of the borough council Tuesday evening in the office of the secretary, Roger J. Keefer, North Queen street. President John N. Sell was in charge.

A discussion was held concerning the resurfacing of Patrick street with Councilman Erwin A. Rebert explaining the present condition of the street. He informed council that a roller and grader are available at present and he felt that since both will be needed to properly condition the street at the West King street entrance between St. Paul's Lutheran church and the Edward Duterra property, this would be a good time to do the work. Burgess Herbert J. Motter stated he had received complaints about the holes in the road near the Lancaster Milk company building, also on Patrick street. It was agreed upon by council that this resurfacing job should be done at the first opportunity.

Councilman Rebert also introduced the matter of increasing the width at the crossing of the alley at the entrance of the John F. Peeser dairy and adjoining the Mrs. Annie Kelley property on South Queen street. Mr. Rebert stated that Mr. Peeser agreed to give the necessary four feet of ground to increase the width from 16 to 20 feet. Mr. Rebert urged council to go along with this change while the new road is being constructed on South Queen street. Following a general discussion, it was decided to carry through Rebert's plan.

WEAVER BACKS BLOOD PROGRAM

In a statement today William G. Weaver, director of Civil Defense for Adams county, urged residents of the county "to give an hour of your time and a pint of your blood" in the Red Cross blood donor program being launched here.

Red Cross recruiters are at work signing prospective donors to enable Adams county to meet its quota of 1,000 pints of blood a year for the armed forces and civil defense.

Burgess Weaver's statement follows: "Among the many important phases of civil defense, the Blood Donor program of the American Red Cross Donor Service stands out as one in which everyone can do his share."

"In planning for the full program of civil defense for Adams county, care of the injured is receiving our first attention. Our plans can be considered well along when we know that a supply of blood is at hand and ready for use."

"Our potential enemy is ruthless. We know not where he will strike next. We must be prepared. I therefore add my call to that of the Blood Donor committee to you, the citizens of Adams county, to give an hour of your time and a pint of your blood that the life of a serviceman or one of our own neighbors might be saved."

TWO SISTERS ARE ARRESTED

A section of old English common law was invoked today in the arrest of Maggie and Emma Gastley, sisters, Gettysburg R. 5, on charges of being "common scolds" and "common nuisances." A neighbor of the Gastleys on the Bonneauville road, George E. Livingston, filed the charges, which were drawn up by District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter.

The first count charges that on July 25 and on other occasions over a period of more than two years, the two Gastley women "were and are common scolds and disturbers of the peace... angry and troublesome women who continuously brawl and wrangle among neighbors."

The second charge alleges that the defendants are "ill-disposed persons, designing, contriving and intending to defame and corrupt the morals as well of youth as of divers other persons..." and that they "uttered openly and publicly with a loud voice, wicked, scandalous and infamous words."

The arrests were made by Constable Charles Smith. They were released on their recognizance for a hearing at 9 o'clock Saturday morning before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehoar.

State Police Say

Parents are frequently involuntarily guilty of undoing the traffic safety rules children learn at school. All too often the police have watched fathers or mothers dragging a reluctant child across an intersection against a red light. Red lights mean STOP for the pedestrian as well as the motorist.

Keep Plumber On Duty

Councilman Vernon C. Weaver, chairman of the water committee and a local plumber, informed council that if they desired him to continue on duty where the new road is being constructed from 10 to 15 hours each day, as has been necessary for the last several weeks, it would not be possible for him to take care of all the sanitary sewer connections which have been requested. Council agreed that Mr. Weaver's duty was to the road construction and the other jobs must wait until he finds the necessary time.

Councilman Weaver also stated that he had been informed by representatives of William V. Sneeringer and Sons, who are assisting with the road digging, as to the method of being paid for the job. The contract had agreed that the rate of pay would be based on the footage covered in digging. A number of unexpected difficulties have arisen and Sneeringers expressed their desire to change the rate of pay to a daily or hourly basis. It was agreed that a record should be kept both of the hours and of the footage and when the job is completed, a rate of pay satisfactory to both parties concerned will be worked out.

Secretary Keefe informed council that all the water mains had been lowered and re-tested where the road is being constructed and in order to continue this work along the complete distance of the new road, some 3/4-inch plugs would be needed. Council approved the action of the secretary in telegraphing for an order of 150 of test plugs which were received on July 24. The secretary was also authorized to order an additional one hundred plugs for future use. Any left over may be returned. The secretary also stated that he had ordered 1,600 feet of copper tubing to be delivered not later than August 15. This action was approved by council and the secretary was instructed also to order a hundred water boxes.

Raise Laborers' Pay
It was stated that men are needed to work on the resurfacing of streets being planned in the borough. The subject of hourly rate of pay for the men who work for the borough was then discussed. It was felt that the 85-cent rate should be increased to $1 per hour for the period of time that the new road is under construction. It was decided to make the increase in the wage and to advertise in the local papers for borough workmen. The hiring and firing of the laborers will be in charge of Councilman Rebert, chairman of the state committee, and Councilman Reaver, chairman of the water committee, who would supervise the labor.

Councilman Roscoe W. Rittase, chairman of the safety committee, introduced the subject of one-way streets. The matter had been discussed at previous meetings but no action had been taken. It was decided to keep all two-way traffic within the streets and alleys in the borough during the construction of the new road, in order to accommodate all traffic while construction is going on and the detour is in effect. Burgess Motter inquired of council what could be done to prevent congestion of traffic at Charles street entrance to South Queen street. It was generally agreed that trucks as well as other vehicles would have to make the best of conditions until the new road is completed.

Water Permits Issued

Water permits were issued to the following: Earl Benner, 109 Lumber street, miscellaneous household uses; First Nazarene church, care of R. R. Kunkle, Littlestown R. 1, one story cement block, Permatone church, one 3/4-inch service connection; A. K. Stock, 33 North Queen street, miscellaneous household uses; Mary Fleggelson, Westminster R. 1, for 106 Lumber street, household uses.

Councilman Lewis E. Fox, chairman of the light committee, said he had contacted the Metropolitan Edison company with regard to the lighting of Prince street extended. He was told that everything was in readiness to install the system, but that some of the materials are not yet available.

Secretary Keefe informed council he had been in contact with the Manufacturers Light and Heat company with regard to the installation of the gas line on Patrick street. The same officials are not in charge as at the time the agreement for the installation was made several years ago and there now seems to be some disagreement as to how and where the line should be laid. It was decided the gas company be notified and instructed that they can install the line immediately if they find the road in the condition they need it. The job must be done before the resurfacing project on Patrick street is begun.

Pacer Establishes New 1 1/2-Mile Mark

Driven by Curly Smart, Scottish Pencer stepped the first mile in 2:06 2/5 and the last half in 59 3/5 seconds for a four-length victory over the Saunders Mills' Stormy-way of Toledo, Ohio.

DOUBLE CROSS AMONG FIXERS IN CAGE MESS

New York, July 26 (AP)—Two fixers in the latest college basketball scandal were in protective custody today and a five-state police dragnet was out for one of their accomplices, a principal in a fantastic double-cross among gamblers.

District Attorney Frank Hogan, who yesterday revealed that a sixth school—Toledo university—was involved in the sordid, mushrooming scandal, told the story of the double-cross among the fixers.

It involved Nick Englis, who rode in the same compartment with an All-America basketball player; his brother, Tony, New York court man; Jack (Zip) West, a former Dutch Schultz associate, and Eli Kaye, the master fixer.

The two Englis brothers are in protective custody. West, who left New York Tuesday when the Englis boys were picked up, is the object of the police search. Kaye is free in $50,000 bail on a charge of fixing City College of New York games last season.

Here is the story of the double-cross as related by Hogan:

Kaye assigned Nick Englis, a former University of Kentucky football player, to the Bradley university. Englis not only paid frequent visits to the Peoria, Ill., campus, but at one time rode in the same compartment on a railroad train with All-America player Gene Melchiorre, who along with four of his teammates, has admitted participating in game-fixing during the 1949-50 season.

Before each Bradley game, Nick would telephone his brother in New York, who would relay the details of the fix to West. West paid $1,000 for the information. The West-Englis arrangement was unknown to Kaye.

Bradley was favored by six or seven points against St. Joseph's in Philadelphia, and the deal was that Melchiorre and his team would win by a narrower margin. Persons who bet on St. Joseph thus would win their wagers.

Suspects Deal

West was let in on the deal, but when Kaye found considerable money was being bet on St. Joseph's, he decided that the word must have leaked out and that there was a double-cross on.

Accordingly, Kaye told Nick they would switch their bets and "teach the other guys a lesson." Kaye then relayed his new instructions to the Bradley players—that they were supposed to win by more than the point spread. Nick called his brother in New York, who told West of the switch. But West said he couldn't change his bets.

West and two of his men took Tony to the West apartment in Brooklyn, and, holding him prisoner, instructed him to call Convention Hall in Philadelphia where the game was being played, and talk to his brother.

Tony did, telling Nick his life was being threatened. Nick then brazenly dashed to the Convention Hall floor, caught Melchiorre's eye and turned his thumbs down, indicating that the plans again were changed—the team was to win under the point spread. Thinking the orders were coming from Kaye, Melchiorre nodded.

Bradley won, 64-60, under the spread, and Kaye, still unimpressed of what was going on, lost heavily betting on Bradley to win by more than six or seven points. West won his bets.

In addition to Melchiorre, Aaron Preece, Jim Kelly, Bill Mann and Bud Grover of Bradley have admitted complicity.

INDIANS LOSE 13TH STRAIGHT IN THE STADIUM

By JACK HAND
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
If Cleveland wins the American league pennant, they'll never believe it in Yankee Stadium.

The Tribal warwhoop is only an empty echo in the Yanks' concrete wigwam on the Harlem where Cleveland has lost 13 straight ball games since July 14, 1950.

Big John Mize was the villain yesterday. His ninth-inning double punched home both runs of the Yankees' 2-1 verdict over tough luck Mike Garcia.

Because Chicago snapped its five-game losing streak and whipped Boston at Fenway Park, 6-2, the Yankees opened up a full game lead on the Red Sox. Cleveland is another game back and the White Sox are 3 1/2 off the pace.

Brooklyn Waites On
In sharp contrast to this wild struggle, the National remains a Brooklyn wait for the Dodgers, 6-2 winners over Chicago, now nine full games in front of New York which won a June 17 "suspended game" from Pittsburgh, 7-6, in 10 innings but lost the regularly scheduled contest, 5-4.

Ken Holcombe, easy-working Chicago righthander, tamed the Red Sox right in Fenway Park with a five-hitter to pull the White Sox out of their tailspin.

Don Lenhardt, the ex-Browne, smashed a three-run homer off Mel Parnell in the sixth to nullify a 1-0 Boston lead.

Garver Beats A's
Ned Garver won No. 13 for the last-place St. Louis Browns who have taken only 28 all season. The talented righthander held Philadelphia to seven hits for a 5-4 edge in a night game at Shibe Park. Washington hopped on Freddie Hutchinson and three successors for 14 hits and a 7-4 decision over Detroit.

Preacher Roe, edging toward his first 20-game year, won his 14th by downing Chicago, 6-2. It was the 12th complete game for the Dodgers' ace lefty.

Gil Hodges, back on the home run beam with his second in two days after an 18-day slump, slugged Bob Rush for No. 30 in the second inning.

Giants Lose Ground
The Giants lost ground in splitting two decisions. They went 10 innings to finish out the "suspended game" with Larry Jansen's 13th victory. It was tied 6-6 in June when the game was called because of the Pennsylvania Sunday curfew.

Rookie Al Corwin, just up from Ottawa, blew a 4-0 lead in the regularly scheduled game.

Robin Roberts racked up his second straight shutout for the Phillies, holding St. Louis to four singles for a 2-0 victory.

Cincinnati and Boston were not scheduled.

Chambersburg Site For Phils' Tryouts

The Phillies will conduct a baseball tryout camp for boys 16 to 23 years of age at Henninger Field, Chambersburg, on August 2, 3 and 4.

Cy Morgan, Phillies scout, and his assistants will be on hand to put each boy through the paces to determine if he has what they are seeking. A boy is required to bring his glove and shoes, and if he can locate a baseball uniform he is to wear it, though this is not compulsory. The Phillies will supply all other equipment.

The tryouts will begin daily at 10:30 a.m., and if a boy cannot attend all three sessions he is welcome to come when he can.

If a boy is signed to a contract in the Phillies farm system he will be reimbursed for his expense incident to attending the tryouts.

Interstate League

(By The Associated Press)
Lefty Joe Bernier fired a one-hitter to give the Lancaster Red Roses a 6 to 3 victory over the Salisbury Athletics in an Interstate league game last night.

In chalking up his tenth win of the season, Bernier missed a no-hitter in the fifth inning when left fielder Bill Stewart got a scratch single to short. Salisbury tallied three unearned runs in the fourth inning.

Hagerstown celebrated its golden anniversary with a 3 to 1 victory over the Harrisburg Senators. A crowd of 2,506 saw Hagerstown righthander Dick Carmichael and his childhood sweetheart, Margaret Lunt, of South Portland, Me., married at home plate just before the game.

The ceremony and celebration were attended by many former stars who played in the old Blue Ridge league when Hagerstown was a member. Guests included owner Lou Perini of the Boston Braves, General Manager Harry Jenkins of the Braves' farm system, John Antonelli, Braves' bonus pitcher now serving in the army at Port Myer, Va., and Don O'Connell of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Eastern Tennis Patron's association, organized by Alastair Martin, plans to establish a program of development and sponsorship that will rival the Southern California setup. . . . TEEN-AGER IS FAVORITE FOR GOLF HONORS

Hershey, Pa., July 26 (AP)—Nearly 150 part-time golfers, who play the public courses, set out today to attempt to stop a teen-ager from monopolizing the 72-hole Pennsylvania public links championship.

Blond Walter (Skippy) Kileea, Jr., 18-year old son of a hockey coach, captured the past two titles with ease and moved into the favorite's role at the start of today's 18-hole first round.

The field will be cut to the low 30 qualifiers at the end of tomorrow's round for the 36-hole finals on Saturday.

Skippy will carry the advantage of playing on his home course, a layout that will tax even the more experienced of the amateurs. The 6210-yard hilly course, criss-crossed by a wandering creek, carries a par of 36-35-71.

May Set Record

The young Kileea, who won the Harrisburg district golf crown last week, would become the first golfer to win three straight Pennsylvania public links titles if he triumphs here this week-end.

Walter (Buddy) Heckman, now a pro at Reading's Green Hills course, is the only other player to win the title twice in a row.

In addition to the team title, the players will be competing for the John B. Kelly trophy for the lowest four-man team at the end of the second round. Hershey can retire the cup with a third win. Green Hills of Reading is the defending champion.

Rated the top contenders for Kileea's title are Anthony Mihlik, Sharon, and Walter Maykut, Mike Shelley and Walter Smith, all of Norristown.

Mihlik was 1946 titlist while the Norristown trio represented eastern Pennsylvania in the National Public Links tournament last week. Other strong teams are entered from the Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Lancaster, Bethlehem and Sharon.

New York, July 26 (AP) — Tuesday, Bradley; Wednesday, Toledo; next week, East Lynne. . . . After the first shocked reaction to the latest reports of the prevalence of bribery in basketball, you begin to wonder if it isn't a case of the players controlling the point spreads and Dist. Atty. Hogan spreading the announcements. . . . Or maybe it's subject matter for another verse to Arthur Mann's celebrated song: "Six Transit Gloria. So I wound up next week in Peoria." . . . Under the NCAA football television program, it may be possible to see the Army and Navy teams in as many as six games next fall — if you own a color set. . . . Each is listed for three games on the color TV program. They're allowed two under the new black-and-white setup and the big Army-Navy game falls outside all restrictions. . . . Bill Veckes raises a squawk about the shortage of colorful players like Dizzy Dean in the big leagues. But you gotta be able to pitch like Diz to get away with being colorful.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
EYE DIARY

I have known many persons so all seeing and selective in their travels that their eyes actually made a diary of the things seen—in other words, the mind's eye did the writing though it was written upon the walls of memory.

Everyone sees the same things in a different manner. No two of us catch the same inspiration or indeed see the things other people do though passing with them at the same time. In like manner, two writers would give a different description or see in a different light. But whatever eye is most alert is forever making notes for its memory diary.

We all remember things we saw in our youth but which we made no written note of, yet that eye of ours wrote it down and our memory took care of the rest. How very wonderful! The late Robert H. (Bob) Davis was a world traveler. You could almost wake him up from a nap and he would give a description of what had just passed him. Once in Hawaii he was doing just this, but caught a casual remark which aroused his curiosity, and he wrote a piece about a church being carried away during one of the Hawaiian volcanic eruptions that was a classic!

We would retain much more than we do if we acquired the habit of reviewing at the end of each day all that these eyes of ours had seen during the day, discarding for memory all but that which might furnish future interest. How many of these eye writings have been retained and later given a significant place in conversation, writing, or among friends in good talk!

Everything we see is written down in our mind somewhere, but only the most impressive is given good space or a prominent classification. The artist is a trained eye diarist. He makes no boast of being photographic, but he does seek to interpret the scene that he portrays and to exhibit its soul. So dramatic was the manner of talk and ideas given to his pupils by the late Robert Henri that his pupils were led to see the things as described by the master himself. His eye wrote as he talked.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Many Objectives."

M'ARTHUR IN NEW ATTACK ON ADMINISTRATION

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, July 26 (AP)—General MacArthur apparently has changed his mind about just fading away, as he told Congress he would when he addressed it last April.

Last night, in a talk to the Massachusetts Legislature in Boston, he said: "I shall raise my voice as loud and as often as I believe it to be in the interest of the American people."

"I shall dedicate all of my energies to restoring to American life those immutable principles and ideals which your forebears and mine handed down to us in sacred trust."

Follows GOP Line

He made a blazing attack on the Truman administration which stripped him of his command in the Korean war. Although he told the legislators he was talking with "neither partisan affiliation or political purpose," his attack could hardly fail to please the Republicans.

His criticism of the Truman administration followed the line taken by many Republican critics, accusing it of taxing and spending too much and not having a foreign policy.

And in one place he employed almost the identical word used by Senator Taft of Ohio, most frequently mentioned as the Republican presidential candidate in 1952.

Since the cease-fire talks began in Korea, Taft has described the Korean war as "useless." Last night the general spoke of the "uselessness" of the Korean war.

When he first returned here last spring and later in June, in five speeches in Texas, the general confined himself to condemning the Truman foreign policy and handling the Korean fighting, urging his own solution for the war, a solution with which the Joint Chiefs of Staff disagreed.

Domestic Policy Too

But in his sixth Texas speech on June 18 the general suddenly shifted his attack and condemned the administration's domestic policies, too, thus getting into the field of economics.

So his attack on the Trumanites last night across the board—on all cal advantage in his favor, Sharkey was forced to put on a two-fisted drive in the last four rounds to get so much as an even break.

Sharkey crawled into the ring, a three to one favorite to whip the chunky, barrel-chested New Jersey Irishman.

THOUSANDS ON TREK TO SHRINE OF SAINTE ANNE

Ste. Anne de Beaupre, Que., July 26 (AP)—Pilgrims—rich and poor, walking and confined to wheel chairs—crowded this St. Lawrence river hillside village today to pray to "La Bonne Sainte Anne."

The have come from near and far for the feast day of the mother of the Blessed Virgin, Quebec's most revered saint after John the Baptist.

Tradition holds that America's oldest shrine began 300 years ago when Breton sailors, saved from shipwreck, built a chapel in honor of Sainte Anne.

Their log chapel has given way to a sumptuous temple where hundreds of crutches, limb supports and canes have been left by ailing and crippled pilgrims, mute testimony of the faith of thousands.

Pontifical High Mass
Sixty-five years ago, Pope Leo XIII proclaimed Saint Anne "Queen of Quebec," and now celebration of the feast is surrounded with more splendor and pomp than before.

Pontifical high masses—infrequent events in most Roman Catholic churches—have been a daily occurrence for the last nine days in the white stone basilica built with donations from Canadian and United States visitors.

Each day of the novena—nine days of prayer—ceremonies have been conducted in French and English and there have been evening torchlight processions on the mountainside overlooking the mile-wide St. Lawrence.

Ste. Anne de Beaupre, a village of about 2,000 persons 25 miles from Quebec city, is overflowing with the estimated 50,000 who have arrived for the feast.

Pottsville, Pa., July 26 (AP)—The Benjamin Rush medalion of the Schuylkill County Medical society has been awarded to Edward A. Lunch, director of personnel for the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company. Lunch was chosen yesterday as the "lay individual who has contributed most to the health and welfare of Schuylkill county people in 1951."

FURTHER PLANS FOR HAS BEENS BASEBALL GAME

At a meeting of a Chamber of Commerce committee composed of Robert J. Stoner, Charles W. Weikert, Clarence L. Schwartz, Karl P. Bankert and Clarence R. Reck, Tuesday morning at Bankert's restaurant, plans were furthered for the Littlestown "Has Beens" benefit baseball game to be played on Wednesday evening, August 1, at 8 o'clock, on the Memorial field. It was reported that invitations have been sent to more than 30 players of recent years, asking them to participate in the game, which is being staged for the benefit of the Littlestown high school band uniform fund. The Woman's Community club of Littlestown and vicinity established the fund and since that time has asked many of the local organizations to raise additional funds.

It was announced that to date approximately half of the invited players have returned the cards signifying their intention to participate in the game, which will be played against the present Littlestown baseball team. The committee has requested that all those intending to play on the "Has Beens" team, who have not yet returned their cards, return them by the end of this week, as the names of the players are needed in order that the insurance contract may be secured. The committee also announced that there will be cash awards given to the fans during the game. Players will receive prizes for the first base on balls, the first single-base hit, the first two-bagger, the first three-bagger, the first home run, the pitcher getting the first strikeout, and the player scoring the first run.

Bud Bankert Manager
Karl (Bud) Bankert, a former local star, will serve as manager of the "Has Beens," and has called practice for tonight and Friday evening of this week at 6 o'clock on Memorial field. Practice sessions for next week will be announced later. Tickets are now on sale and may be secured at the field the night of the game. The admission will be 60 cents for adults, 20 cents for children six to 12 years of age and free admission to children under six. The Littlestown baseball team won the pennant in the Pen-Mar league in 1948 and 1949 and is again a member of the league this year. Members of this year's team include: Marvin F. Breighner, manager; Warren Wisotzky and William Mehring, assistant managers; Clyde W. Crouse, Edward Mehring, Harry Strine, Lloyd Harner, Joseph Kebil, William Fuhrman, Raymond Wolf, Robert Smith, Paul Hull, Francis Gerrick, Richard Staub, William Witherow, Richard A. Little, Jr., Everett Feeser, Levere A. Breighner, Richard Stuller, Richard Barnes and Robert Davidson, players.

Rotarians See Game
A majority of the members of the Littlestown Rotary club and their guests attended the Detroit-Washington American league baseball game in Washington, D. C., on Tuesday evening. Those who attended met at Schottie's hotel at 4 p.m. and motored to Silver Run, where they boarded a bus which took them to Washington. Enroute to the game they had supper together. Nine members who were unable to attend the game had dinner and a round-table discussion at Schottie's. One visitor was present at the meeting, Frank Summer, of the Westminster club.

The Ladies' Night scheduled for next Tuesday evening has been postponed and will be held Tuesday, August 28. Instead there will be a plant visitation after the dinner, with the Ritter brothers acting as hosts at the Littleton Shoe company. Charles E. Ritter, the club president, and his twin brother, Luther W. Ritter, are managers of the company.

The Tuesday evening trip in charge of the Fellowship and Attendance committee, composed of A. W. Schott, chairman, Mervin Harner, Roy D. Krouse and Richard A. Little, Jr. Next week's meeting will be in charge of the Vocational Service committee consisting of Luther D. Snyder, chairman, Clarence R. Reck, Walter P. Crouse, George P. Smith, Dr. Donald B. Coover and Lloyd E. Crouse.

Plan Hobby Show
A hobby show and doll exhibit will be held on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on the Littlestown playground, in conjunction with the community recreation program. Anyone wishing, both children and adults, may enter the show or exhibit. All articles must be the work of the exhibitors. Hobbies, scrapbooks or special subjects and similar articles are to be displayed. Each child or adult wishing to exhibit articles should have a tag with their hobby stating the owner's name, age and classification of the article.

The classifications are as follows: Creative activities, woodwork in which such articles as furniture bird-houses and toys have been constructed; models, including airplanes, ships and other subjects; devices, both mechanical and electrical; arts and crafts, consisting of wood carving, clay modeling, paintings, drawings, photographs, leather craft, metal work, sewing, weaving and writing.

Al Hinckley, who appears in the current Totem Pole playhouse production of "Years Ago" as Clinton Jones, father of Ruth Gordon Jones, when the author-actress tells the story of her early struggles to go all week, through Saturday, at "on the stage." "Years Ago" plays Wednesday matinee at 2:15 p.m., the playhouse between Caledonia and Pine Grove Furnace on Route 233.

The second group includes collections such as stamps, coins, wild flowers, leaves, butterflies, moths, insects, antiques, scrapbooks, buttons, badges and other articles; miscellaneous interests including kits, paper construction and other features. Judging will take place and ribbons will be awarded to the winners. The first prize winner will receive a blue ribbon, second prize a red ribbon and third prize a white ribbon. Judging will be on the basis of the largest collection, most useful and most unusual collection.

A doll show similar to that one held last summer, will take place. Ribbons will be given for the largest collection of dolls, biggest doll, smallest doll, most unusual, most unique, best dressed, funniest looking, prettiest bride doll, oldest doll and the doll that has traveled the farthest distance.

The special events will be conducted by the instructors, Mrs. Kay Crouse Sentz and Clayton L. Evans. Entertain Guests

NEW MEMBER TO BACK TRUMAN

McKeesport, Pa., July 26 (AP) — Mrs. Vera Buchanan, steadfast in her determination to back President Truman to the hilt when she becomes a member of Congress, is ready to be sworn in "just as soon as I get word from Washington."

Mrs. Buchanan is the new representative from Pennsylvania's highly industrialized 33rd congressional district. Running on the Democratic ticket in a special election in the Pennsylvania primary Tuesday, Mrs. Buchanan easily won the right to succeed her late husband, Rep. Buchanan, who died last April. The attractive 48-year-old grandmother, first woman ever elected to Congress from the Pittsburgh area, polled 41,453 votes in unofficial returns from 221 of the 227 precincts in the 33rd congressional district. Her GOP opponent, Clifford W. Flegal, received 25,586 votes.

Mrs. Buchanan said she appreciates "the heavy responsibility placed upon me in these troubled days. At all times I shall work and vote in the interest of my beloved country."

Flegal, who at 30 is Pennsylvania's youngest city controller, congratulated Mrs. Buchanan last night. He said: "The voters have selected a representative to our national government. x x x I take this opportunity to express appreciation to everyone who helped and voted in the campaign to stop the trend to socialism, or its successor, communism."

RESERVOIR FILLING

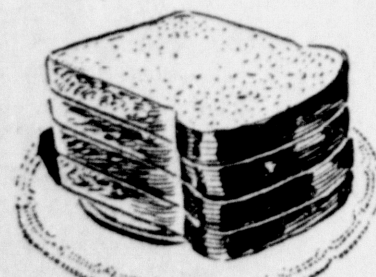

Philadelphia, July 26 (P)—A loss of five per cent of the original storage capacity of the Coatesville reservoir has been discovered by a survey of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service. Engineers of the service found the reservoir to be losing storage space at the rate of half a million gallons yearly due to silt and soil sedimentation. They said yesterday the situation is not alarming but emphasized the loss is now enough to be measured.

JAYCEES PLAN OUTING MONDAY

A Family Night outing will be held by the Littlestown Junior Chamber of Commerce on Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock at Meadow View Park, near Union Mills, Md. A basket lunch will be enjoyed. The Jaycees have also announced that they will sponsor an "Old Timers" baseball game on Friday night, August 17, for the benefit of Littlestown Memorial field. The public is not to confuse this game with the one being played next Wednesday evening on Littlestown Memorial field between the Has Beens and the present town team, which is being sponsored by the Littlestown Chamber of Commerce for the benefit of the local high school band uniform fund.

The annual picnic sponsored by the Sunday school of St. Mary's Evangelical and Reformed church, Silver Run, will be held on Saturday in Christ Reformed church grove, near town. Roast chicken and ham suppers will be served from 4 to 8 p.m. Music will be furnished by the Knights of Pythias band, Hanover.

The Abigail Kammerer Missionary society of St. Paul's Lutheran church did not meet on Tuesday evening as previously announced, but instead will meet on Tuesday, July 31, at 7:30 p.m., on the lawn at the home of Mrs. Charles E. Ritter, South Queen street. Mrs. George Schaeffer will be the leader for the topic discussion.

Littlestown Girl Scout Troop No. 15 will not hold any more meetings until the first Thursday in September. Mrs. Carroll E. Arter is the troop leader.

Thorium is used in atomic energy work.

CHURCHES SHOW BIG INCREASES IN MEMBERSHIP

New York, July 26 (AP) — Church membership in the United States rose to 85,705,280 in 1950, a record-making 55.9 per cent of the population.

The total membership was up 2,950,987 over the previous year.

The figures were reported in an annual survey compiled by the Christian Herald magazine.

These counts for the major faiths were listed:

Protestant membership rose 1,409,045 to a total of 50,083,868, an increase of 2.89 per cent over the previous year.

Roman Catholics increased 859,784 to a total of 28,470,092, up 3.1 per cent.

Jewish congregations, on which there were no new statistics, remained listed at 5,000,000.

Protestants Lead

The magazine which makes the only comprehensive, regular survey of church membership in the United States, said "the major faiths continue in about the same proportion to each other."

"Protestants are still well in the lead, with 58.5 per cent of all church members," the report said. "Roman Catholics claim 33.2 per cent of the total, while Jewish congregations account for 5.8 per cent." The remaining 2.5 per cent is split among various other groups.

Church membership rose to an all-time record of 55.9 per cent of the nation's population as membership in various faiths increased 3.56 per cent last year while the population grew only 1.67 per cent.

Persons not belonging to any church now make up 44.1 per cent of the population. Fifty years ago, the percentage of non-members was 65.3.

Baptists Gain Most

The 1949 overall gain in membership was 2,426,723 and the 1948 gain was 2,190,264 — both less than the 2,950,987 of 1950.

Southern Baptist, which added 318,624 members in 1950, had the biggest gain of any single Protestant denomination.

The Methodist church still is the largest Protestant denomination. Its membership rose 143,078 to a total of 8,935,647. Its membership gain was the second highest.

Office Soldiers Will Go To Korea

Washington, July 26 (AP) — Administrative and training staffs of the six U. S. Army areas will be tapped for about half the troops to go to Korea as replacements in the next few months.

Announcing this Monday, the army also said some individual soldiers will be chosen from the 31st and 47th National Guard divisions now training at Fort Jackson, S. C., and Camp Rucker, Ala., respectively.

The two guard divisions have already supplied some replacements, the army added.

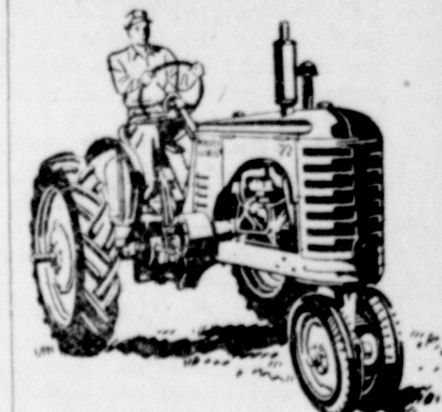

Its aim is to replace 30,000 Korean troops in each of the next three months. To that end, the army said, the six army areas will be called upon to supply 29,000 men in July and August and an undetermined number in September.

M'ARTHUR TO HAVE ROLE IN '52 CAMPAIGN

Boston, July 26 (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur has thrown himself into the 1952 presidential fight as a candidate or campaigner—at least in the eyes of Massachusetts politicians.

Both Republican and Democratic leaders see the 71-year-old general as far from "fading away" after he opened a two-day tour of the bay state with a brilliant attack on administration policies—foreign and domestic.

And MacArthur himself—while claiming "neither partisan affiliation nor political purpose"—served as a spokesman for the "raise my voice as loud and as often as I believe it to be in the interest of the American people."

Whether the general hopes to run himself in 1952—or merely take the stump as a champion for his policies—drew divided opinions in this historic countryside.

MacArthur chose a bi-partisan Massachusetts legislature—a Republican Senate and a Democratic House—to launch out last night with one of the bitterest attacks on American policy since President Truman fired him from his Far Eastern commands.

Grim-faced and even more determined than when he addressed Congress, the old soldier charged that United States has "no plan"—either for Korea or at home.

While skirting around the current cease-fire negotiations underway in Kaesong, he declared: "Now that the fighting has temporarily abated the outstanding impression which emerges from the scene is the utter uselessness of the enormous sacrifices in life and limb which has resulted."

MacArthur contended the result of the war in Korea has been "indisputable" and charged Russian propaganda "completely dominates American foreign policy."

Gets Loud Applause
The general said one of the reasons for his ouster was for offering "to meet the enemy commander at any time to discuss acceptable terms of a cease fire arrangement."

"Yet," he added, with a tone of sarcasm, "for this proposal, I was relieved of my command by the same authorities who since have received so enthusiastically the identical proposal when made by the Soviet government."

But MacArthur struck out even more vigorously—and drew some of his loudest applause—in denouncing policies on the home front.

He criticized rising taxes, inflation and what he called a threat to the "system of free enterprise."

Family Of Three Saved From Drowning

Virginia Beach, Va., July 26 (AP)—Charles Evanovsky developed sinus trouble in 1933 and hadn't been swimming since.

But that didn't stop the 200-pound principal of nearby South Norfolk high school when he heard a cry for help.

Looking out into the Atlantic ocean, he saw a boy in water over his head. Then he saw the boy's mother run into the surf—and she soon was in difficulty. Suddenly, a little girl dashed after the two.

Evanovsky swam 200 yards and managed to drag Mrs. Ruby Grimstead and her seven-year-old son to safety. He returned and brought back Mrs. Grimstead's six-year-old daughter. Evanovsky's reaction?

"I didn't think I would ever make it back," he said.

Philadelphia, July 26 (AP)—Vacations, voter apathy and the complications of a record-size ballot all worked to slow balloting Tuesday in the primary election.

Many of the city's 1,417 polling places reported only a scattering few voters turned out in the first hours to ballot on Republican and Democratic contests for mayor, city council and many local posts. The big prize at stake was control of the city Republican organization.

Washington, July 26 (AP)—The government has about 11,000 extra desks on its hands here. Warehouses are jammed with them.

"But we're not worried about it at all," says William A. Miller, regional director of the General Services Administration (GSA). The GSA is the buyer for most government agencies. He told a reporter today he expects ordinary demand to take up the supply within three to five months. He estimated there were 10,000 wooden desks and 1,000 steel desks.

Tokyo, July 26 (AP)—The foreign office said Tuesday more than 234,000 Japanese captured in World War II have died in prisoner-of-war camps in Communist territory. It added in a white paper that 28,797 others are missing.

The document said 77,637 Japanese POWs are alive in Communist Siberia, South Sakhalin Island and the Kuriles, North Korea, Manchuria and Kwangtung Province in China.

The intensity of artificial lighting used for night baseball games varies from about five per cent to 20 per cent that of daylight.

Death Of Cattle Is Range Mystery

Amarillo, Tex., July 26 (AP)—What killed 38 head of Stein Wholford's cattle?

Nobody knows and loss of the heifers and calves valued at $12,000 is developing into a first rate range mystery.

In less than 24 hours the cattle died on Wholford's Sherman county ranch. The bodies were found scattered last Tuesday over a low spot in a two-section pasture where an old gas well is located.

Dr. Charles Thompson, Dalhart veterinarian, said two more tests are to be made on the internal organs of five of the cattle.

Shroyer Upsets GOP In Northumberland

Sunbury, Pa., July 26 (AP)—John U. Shroyer, Shamokin, and Dr. George A. Detrick, Sunbury, has upset Republican organization candidates in winning the nominations for county commissioners in Northumberland county.

The pair defeated Leroy Thomas and Ray Leffler, who were backed by GOP County Chairman Henry W. Lark. Shroyer is a former state secretary of highways and one-time gubernatorial candidate. Detrick is a former state senator.

Unofficial returns from all of the county's 106 districts gave Shroyer 11,933, Detrick 11,984, Thomas 10,741 and Leffler 10,336.

Hamilton, N. Y., July 26 (AP)—Alexander F. Jones, president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, Tuesday demanded a government investigation of the head of the TASS News Agency in Washington.

Jones, in a talk prepared for the third annual foreign policy conference at Colgate university, charged that the Soviet government had assigned Mikhail Fedorov to Washington because of his political training, rather than his journalistic skill.

Musmanno Wins Court Nomination

Philadelphia, July 26 (AP)—The vote in Pennsylvania from 7,831 of 8,412 precincts for Democratic supreme court:

Grover C. Ladner 238,037.

Michael A. Musmanno 293,718.

(Includes 1,020 of 1,079 Allegheny county precincts. Ladner 34,224; Musmanno 114,237 and 1,416 of 1,417 Philadelphia precincts. Ladner 53,883; Musmanno 9,756.)

Ladner at noon Wednesday conceded his defeat and sent his opponent this telegram: "Congratulations on your victory in the Democratic primary."

Norristown, Pa., July 25 (AP)—A spokesman for the Pennsylvania Motor Truck association told the Kiwanis club Tuesday a truck weight increase bill before the General Assembly means progress in highway transportation.

"Truck transportation's tremendous expansion in the past 10 years will greatly alleviate the strains that defense mobilization is placing on our mass distribution system," said Thomas F. Robertson, PMTA community relations director.

TO VOTE SOON IN HOUSE ON FUNDS FOR "THE VOICE"

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, July 26 (AP) — This week the House votes on money for the State Department, which includes money for its "Voice of America."

The Republicans, banging away at the State Department and Secretary Acheson for years, have made a special target of the "Voice."

They're not talking of abolishing it. They want to cut down the money for it. They say they don't like the way it's run.

Further, they don't like the people running it. They call them nincompoops and fuzzy-minded, not unusual phrases in attacks on the State Department.

Broadcasts Daily

The "Voice" is part of the department's information and propaganda program intended to win friends and influence people abroad. The "Voice" broadcasts daily in 45 languages around the world, providing news, features and comments on world affairs.

The State Department also maintains libraries abroad, distributes films in what countries it can, and sends out nightly 10,000 words of world news by wireless to 160 American missions abroad.

The libraries, films and news bulletins are practically useless in reaching people in the Communist countries. Being seen using them would be dangerous if not fatal.

So the "Voice" broadcasts through the iron curtain are this country's best hope of getting some information, news and American propaganda to the people living under communism.

Effectiveness In Doubt

Still, no one can say how effective the "Voice" is in reaching those people. All you can ever get is guesses for the obvious reason that the State Department can't take a radio audience poll in Communist countries.

The Republicans not only don't like the people running the information-propaganda program but they don't like what the "Voice" is doing.

For instance, Rep. Taber, New York Republican, says the "nincompoops" and the fuzzy-minded people should be cleaned out, along with Secretary Acheson, who is the main Republican target anyway.

And Rep. Clarence Brown, Ohio Republican, made a long speech in the House this week, saying of the "Voice": "The opinion is almost universal that there is entirely too much boasting about American living standards, American luxuries, and American big-heartedness."

Basic Question

But when you cut through the Republicans' attack and the Democrats' defense—and plenty of them are rising to defend the "Voice"— the basic question sticks out:

Just what is the "Voice" trying to do with the people behind the iron curtain, living under communism? It can be summed up this way:

It can hardly urge them to outright revolt against their Communist masters. It is trying, though, to fill them with discontent, drum into them the merits of freedom, and try to win goodwill for this country.

Hoquiam, Wash., July 26 (AP) — Standard time and daylight time will continue in Grays Harbor county, but "tavern time" may be doomed.

"Tavern time" was adopted a month ago for two of the county's three districts. It provides for daylight time during the week and standard time on week-ends. The purpose was to give coastal resorts, cocktail lounges and taverns an extra hour on week-ends to take advantage of the summer tourist trade.

8 Mississippians Deny Conspiracy

Jackson, Miss., July 26 (AP) — Eight of Mississippi's top pro-Truman Democrats have pleaded innocent to federal charges of conspiring to sell government jobs.

They included Clarence Hood, deposed acting Democratic national committeeman; Curtis Rogers, secretary of the rump Democratic committee formed after the state's regular Democrats bolted in 1948 to support the States Rights; B. C. Beasley, former committee secretary; Laverne Yelverton, office secretary, and Frank Mize, chairman of the committee.

They were among the 12 indicted last week by a special grand jury. The eight voluntarily submitted to arrest.

Others of the group were Roy Brasher of Brookhaven, Henry Debow of Jackson and Dewey McLeod of Mt. Olive.

Arrested and freed on bond last Friday were committee counsel Forrest Jackson and committeewoman Mrs. C. V. Murphy of Winona and her husband.

J. H. Wilkinson of Jackson is the only one of the 12 who has not appeared at the U. S. marshal's office.

Ottawa, July 26 (AP) — Hit by an unusual egg scarcity, Canada, for the first time in her history, is importing thousands of cases of eggs from foreign countries.

More than 2,000,000 dozens have been shipped to this country from the United States and Holland in the last few months. More are expected to follow.

A margin of error of about 10 per cent must be conceded in estimates of the total world population based on those countries which conduct periodic counts.

DISCOVERER OF ARGYROL DIES

Phoenixville, Pa., July 26 (AP) — Dr. Albert C. Barnes, 78, who became a millionaire in the 1920s as the result of his discovery and manufacture of argyrol, was thrown from his convertible and killed Tuesday at a highway intersection near here.

State police said Dr. Barnes' car collided with a truck driven by Samuel E. Ash, 30, Phoenixville, who was uninjured.

Dr. Barnes, who devoted the last 20 years to amassing a fabulous art collection, was president of the $6,000,000 endowed Barnes foundation he established in nearby Merion.

when the ounce of prevention fails

WARNING AGAINST ACCIDENTS in the home and on the highways is old stuff to most of us. Many industries have made real progress in accident prevention, but our homes continue to produce minor and major injuries on an ever-increasing scale.

In spite of every precaution, accidents will occur. When the "ounce of prevention" fails, it is wise to have "the pound of cure" ready and at hand. See that your medicine cabinet is amply stocked with standard first-aid materials. Keep a first-aid kit in the pocket of your car. We shall be pleased to help you select the essential items from our complete stock.

READING NAMES NEW PRESIDENT

Philadelphia, July 26 (AP)—Joseph A. Fisher, of Orelana, Pa., has been named to succeed Revelle W. Brown as president of the Reading Co. Brown will retire September 1. Fisher, now executive vice president, has been with the railroad since 1921. He started as special agent in the freight traffic department, and in 1922 was named traffic representative. He moved up to chief clerk in the office of the vice president in charge of freight traffic in 1925, and then served as foreign freight agent, assistant general freight agent and finally general freight agent. In September of 1945, he was elected vice president, freight traffic, and executive vice president last year. Fisher is married and has two children. At the same meeting Tuesday the board announced the net income of the railroad for the six-month period ending June 30 as $3,665,111. The total was a decrease of $309,719 from the total for the first six months of 1950.

GUARD IS ROBBED

Northfork, W. Va., July 26 (AP)—A burglar pried open a window and took $400 to $500 from the trouser pocket of John Verducci as he slept in a back room of his service station. Why was Verducci sleeping there? Just guarding the place against thieves, he told state police yesterday.

New Oxford

New Oxford—Mr. and Mrs. William Shultz, who recently moved to the Pine Run area from near East Berlin, entertained a party of relatives at a lawn supper during the past week to celebrate the birthdays of three generations of the family: those of Mr. Shultz, his younger daughter, Mrs. Dean Johnson, Dallsouth, and her young daughter, Ann Lucinda, who was one year old. Others present were: Mr. and Mrs. Norman Shultz and son, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weaver and son, Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shultz, Mr. Johnson and Elaine Johnson, and Mrs. Painter.

Miss Mae Adelaide Kuhn, former rural teacher in this area, who spent more than a year as a patient at the Kuhn convalescent home, east of town, returned this week to her home near Hanover where she will be cared for by a sister, Mrs. Bertha Kuhn Sappington, who recently arrived at their girlhood home from Tampa, Fla., to spend the summer. Miss Kuhn is now in generally good health.

Mrs. Vena Reber, near town, has been a patient at the Hanover hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Billman, Hanover, he a former local boy, became the parents of a son, Jeffrey Allen, at the Hanover hospital on July 12.

Airlines Hostess Admits Smuggling

Cairo, Egypt, July 26 (AP)—A police superintendent at Cairo's Farouk airport said today that Trans World Airlines Hostess Cynthia Blyth had confessed she smuggled gold from Cairo to Bombay, India. Three other persons were said to have been arrested in the case. Miss Blyth, identified by authorities as a British subject residing in India, was arrested July 18 on charges of attempting to smuggle $3,000 worth of gold ingots out of Egypt aboard the plane on which she served as hostess. She was said to be a link in a large international gold smuggling ring. Police said she was carrying three bars of gold in a package under her coat to the plane. Capt. Ahmed Kamel Yassin, the airport police superintendent, said Miss Blyth had told him she received 30 pounds (about $86) for every shipment of gold she smuggled to Bombay.

Arrested with Miss Blyth on the smuggling charges was Roger Oghia, an Armenian with the Egyptian passport, and his wife. No date for a trial of the group has been set. Maggie and Nellie are names of towns in North Carolina near the Cherokee Indian reservation at the eastern gate to the Great Smoky Mountains National Park.

SEN. MCCARTHY SAYS WE MUST GIVE 29 NAMES

Washington, July 26 (AP)—Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) said today it appears to him he has no choice but to name the 29 persons he contends are under investigation for loyalty within the State Department.

Commenting on the department's brusque rejection of his demand for assurance that the 29 persons do not have access to state secrets, McCarthy told a reporter:

"I am inclined to think I have no choice but to name them unless the State Department completely reverses its stand. The situation is too dangerous not to do so."

Has Named Two

Assailing the senator's threats to name the 29 as a "political stratagem," the department said yesterday that some of the persons on McCarthy's list are not even in the department, some have been cleared, and all employees are barred from secret papers if the department finds that "such access might constitute a danger to the security of the United States."

McCarthy on Monday had written Secretary of State Acheson he would name the 29 persons he said face loyalty checks unless he received assurance they did not have access to secret papers.

He has named only two of them: Ambassador Philip Jessup and John Carter Vincent, a career diplomat.

Without confirming that any of the 29 are under loyalty investigation, Deputy Undersecretary Carlisle Humelsine replied yesterday that under a presidential order the department is barred from making public any reports or records bearing on loyalty cases.

Humelsine added: "Your indiscriminate lumping of names and the threat to make them public is tantamount to holding hostage the reputations and rights of those employees who have been or may be cleared of the allegations against them."

FINGERS LACERATED

Jacob Alexander, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Alexander, Aspers R. 1, was treated at the Warner hospital for multiple lacerations of the fingers of his right hand. The youngster was injured Monday afternoon when his hand became caught in a corn sheller.

MAGAZINE SAYS DUFF AND FINE FORCES SPLIT

New York, July 26 (AP)—Senator James A. Duff (R-Pa.) and Governor John S. Fine of Pennsylvania have split and "the Grundy machine, pronounced dead only a year ago, is back in power again," Time magazine said today.

This "big new fact in Pennsylvania politics may virtually affect the political fortunes of Ike Eisenhower and Robert Taft," the magazine adds.

When Duff "went to Washington as U. S. senator last year," Time says, "he thought he had licked old Republican boss Joe Grundy once and for all, and had left the state in safe hands."

"Fine ignored his old patron."

Likening Duff's position as a junior senator to a man playing deep left field, the magazine says in this week's issue:

"Jim Duff cannot afford to stay in the outfield for long. As eastern manager of the Eisenhower-for-President forces, he counts on controlling Pennsylvania's big 67-man delegation to the Republican convention."

"By instinct and inclination, Grundyites prefer Taft. With Governor Fine running the state government and playing ball with Grundy, Jim Duff is in danger of finding himself manager with only half a team."

At his summer home in Indian town, Pa., last night, Fine denied he had split with Duff. There was no comment forthcoming from Duff in Washington.

APPOINTED TEACHER

Ruth E. Stull was appointed teacher of music at Emmitsburg high school at a meeting of the board of education in Frederick on Monday. It was announced that Keith Janicke has resigned.

CLUB MEETS TUESDAY

The Green Leaf 4-H club will meet Tuesday, July 31, instead of Friday, August 31. The meeting will be held at the home of Larene Tate at 1:30 p.m. Last Friday the club met at the home of Phyllis Cleveland, and prepared and served cookies, tomato soup and salad.

DHIA MEETS

The executive committee of the Adams County Dairy Herd Improvement Association met Tuesday evening at the office of the county farm agent. After a two-hour discussion the group continued its meeting until Monday with the hope that arrangements can be made by that time to either elect a new tester or interest someone from the county in obtaining instruction in the carrying on the work of tester.

Boy And 23 Snakes Are Safe At Home

Gene Berman, 14, Drexel Hill, and his 23 snakes are on the last lap of a hitch-hiking trip from Jacksonville, Fla.

Berman is the lad who gained nationwide publicity last Wednesday when Jacksonville police picked him up as a "runaway" and were astounded when he displayed his 23 snakes including a four-foot, seven-inch boa constrictor, 21 baby constrictors and a three-foot Everglade rat snake.

The 14-year-old snake dealer hitched a ride here with M. R. Tipton, Western Maryland railroad police man, who was traveling to York on business.

Tipton, curious about the boy and his snakes, inquired at a York newspaper office. His curiosity was satisfied when he read Associated Press stories about the youngster which were published last Wednesday.

NEW STAMP ON SALE

A commemorative stamp marking the 250th anniversary of the landing of Antoine de la Mothe Cadillac at Detroit went on sale Wednesday at the Gettysburg postoffice. Postmaster Lawrence E. Oyler said he has 5,000 stamps of the three-cent issue, printed in blue. There are 110,000,000 stamps in the issue.
